What's Changing

- Subscriptions available for weekly, monthly, 3-monthly and 6-monthly periods – subscribe and train as much as you like anywhere in the state.
- Childrens' School Term subscriptions are also available.
- Only payments through the online platform will be accepted. Direct payments/transfers to Aikido Victoria bank account will no longer be accepted.
- One set of standard training fees applies across the whole state – except University dojos.

What's Not Changing

- Daily/on-the-day training fees can still be paid – only difference is between the online and cash payment rates.
- Concession rates apply to individuals who qualify for them (ie: concession or health care card holders) or by written approval by State Area Representative:
    - You do not have to re-apply for concession at this time, but you may be asked for proof.
    - Concession rates for subscriptions, classes or TTCs do not apply to regular instructors by default – only if they qualify as an individual themselves. Regular instructors can pay concession rates for Special Days of Training only.
- No training fees for 6+ dans or instructors of that class.
- University dojo training fees and payment systems are not changing (yet!). Separate training fees apply.
- No changes to kyu grading fees.

Notes for Instructors

- Cash cannot be accepted for anything other than daily training fees.
- Higher rate for cash payments is for the additional manual processing required.
- Please encourage students to pay before stepping on the mat.
- Subscriptions can be paid up to 15 minutes into the start of a class time – any later and the subscription will not be "live" and TRAKR will show that they are unpaid.
- Day fees (including Special Days and TTCs) can be paid up until midnight of the day of training.
- More information to come in the online payments platform guide.
