Special Day of Training

Celebration of Women in Aikido

Please join us for a very Special Day of Training, led by Victoria's most senior female instructor, Felicia Birman Shihan (rokudan).

If you haven't been to one of these days before, gender is no barrier to entry. Just like dojo training and all other special training days, all students are encouraged to come and train. The purpose of this day is have the opportunity to experience aikido with a focus that you might not normally get to see.
